

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS – HAROLD A. CROOK has served as the Superintendent of Schools for the Southern California Conference since 2011. Prior to his current position, he served as principal of the Newbury Park Adventist Academy from July 1988 – to 2011. Dr. Crook holds BS and MA degrees in Physical Education and Health from Pacific Union College and an EdD degree in Administration and Leadership from Loma Linda University, La Sierra Campus.

In the past four years, under his leadership the Office of Education has launched four major initiatives: a Principal Appreciation Program, a Principal Retention Program and a Principal Enrichment Program, and marketing services for small schools in SCC. Elder Crook's ultimate goal in his personal leadership commitment is to mentor Christ to students and faculty each and every day, and to create a Christ-driven academic program that can impact lives for eternity.
